

Poor Old Crow

American Folksong

$\text{♩} = 120$

The musical score consists of four staves of music in common time (indicated by the '4' in the top left corner of each staff). The key signature is common (no sharps or flats). The first staff begins with a treble clef and has lyrics: "Three old crows sat on a tree, Just as black as crows could be." Measure 5 starts with "Poor old crow," followed by a repeat of "poor old crow" and "Just as black as a crow could be." The third staff begins at measure 9 with "The old he - crow says to his mate: 'What shall we do for meat to eat?'" Measure 13 continues with "The poor old crow, poor old crow, Just as black as a crow could be."
